RECENT AWARDS & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- 2008, Voted “Coolest Teacher” by students at Dunbar Gifted and Talented International Studies Middle School
- 2007, The Pinnacle Learning Centers, after 6 months of my management, went from being unlisted by The Sutherland Institute to ranked fourth of 858 Utah schools in all three Best Learning Environment categories.
- 2007, Everest College, a multinational public corporation which owns over 140 colleges, is rolling-out the scheduling system I developed for their Salt Lake campus system-wide, with a stated positive revenue impact estimated at over $100M. I also taught Management, Accounting, and Computer Science courses there as well as audit for Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and B.A.-level accreditation requirements.
- 2006, I helped finalize a $150M deal to develop cell-phone broadcasting services for a major cell phone company.
- 2005, Auction Video, the default provider of video hosting services for eBay, of which I was VP of Operations, was described by eBay CEO Meg Whitman as “[possibly] the next PayPal.”
- 2004, SharpEnglish, under my lead, grew from launch to 4,000 students in just over six months. For this position I also hired and trained over 200 employees.
- 2003, The Bride Book, which I founded, was listed in Utah’s Book of Lists having one of the “Top 25 E-Commerce Sites in Utah.” That year we printed over 30,000 copies per issue of our 400 page magazine, for which I was also made into a memorable character in a motion picture.
